BLU-Tique Hotel Opens its Doors to First Guests

January 6, 2020 – Akron, Ohio – The BLU-Tique Hotel in downtown Akron opens its doors to its very first guests today. This boutique hotel on the corner of Main and Market in the heart of Akron’s Historic Arts District offers 71 guest rooms, a fitness center, meeting space, and onsite restaurant and lounge with live jazz music. Rounding out the BLU Zone which includes Blu Plate Restaurant and Blu Jazz+ Nightclub, BLU-Tique Hotel is a welcome addition to this thriving business district.

BLU-Tique Hotel occupies the historic United 1 Building. Once home to the United Cigar Company, this early 1920’s building has had much of its historical architectural elements preserved. A jazz themed hotel with mid-century modern décor, it will delight guests with an abundance of natural light, great city views, and easy access to a multitude of dining and entertainment options.

Located at 1 South Main Street, BLU-Tique Hotel is proud to bring a unique lodging experience back to downtown Akron. The entire BLU Zone is eager to offer business and leisure travelers an all-encompassing experience where guests can come for the food, stay for the music, and stay the night. This is history in the making, this is BLU – welcome to the zone.

BLU-Tique Hotel is proud to be a part of the Akron community and is looking forward to becoming a destination hotel for those visiting the area as well as local residents looking for a new, hip place to experience.

BLU-Tique Hotel is managed by Riley Hotel Group. To learn more about this exciting property, call Joe Moffa at (330) 590-8041 or visit the website at www.blu-tique.com.
