

Riley Hotel Group Acquires the Coco Plum Inn in Key West, Florida

Key West, Florida – December 28, 2018 – Riley Hotel Group has acquired this historical property located at 611 and 615 Whitehead Street in Key West. The first building, 611, was built in 1891 with the second following in 1898. The two Victorian structures are located in Old Town, just one block from the infamous Duval Street. Rich in history, the Inn has seen its fair share of colorful characters from Ernest Hemingway, to President Truman, and the “Queen of Balido”.

Offering 14 rooms, private grounds with lush vegetation, freshly prepared hot breakfasts each morning, and an inviting pool, the Inn is a favorite among travelers from all over the world for its charm, impeccable service, and location to all that this small, but mighty island has to offer.

Newly appointed General Manager, Victor Zarnick, is excited to welcome guests to the Inn and provide them with an incredibly memorable stay. Providing suggestions to local landmarks, dining establishments, and nightlife spots, Victor and his staff can help guests plan off island excursions as well.

Coco Plum Inn is managed by Riley Hotel Group, a leader in the independent, branded, and boutique hotel operations categories. Managing properties in Ohio, Michigan, Florida, Wyoming, and Iowa, their experience and expertise makes them the perfect choice to manage the operations of this charming B&B. With a focus on developing lucrative partnerships with investment groups, developers, owners, and operators, Riley Hotel Group offers unparalleled service and support.
